TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

An informal reception will be given Wednesday afternoon from three to five o'clock, for Miss Elsie Saville and Miss Bertha Saville, who plan to leave Topeka soon to engage in missionary work. The party is to be held at the home of Mrs. D. P. Paxton, 315 West Tenth avenue, by the women of the Methodist Home Missionary Society.

Miss Bertha Saville will leave for Nome, Alaska, in a short time, where she will be in charge of the Methodist hospital of that city.

Miss Elsie Saville will go to Farmington, New Mexico, to teach in an Indian school, maintained by the Methodist Missionary Society. She took a special course in Washburn college to fit her for her work of teaching among the Indians.

A short program, arranged by Mrs. H. A. Heath, will be given, which will include an address by Dr. Edmund J. Kulp, pastor of the First Methodist church.

Members of the Missionary society, and other friends of the guests of honor are invited to attend.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles M. Sheldon will be at home informally two evenings this week, for members of Dr. Sheldon's congregation and all other friends who wish to call, at their residence in West Fifteenth street. The evenings they have appointed to receive their friends are tonight and Thursday night. No formal invitations are issued, and all their friends are asked to come.

Cards have been received in Topeka announcing the marriage of Miss Esch-Teck of St. Joseph, to Mr. William Cecil Calvert of Manhattan, Monday, June 25. Mr. Calvert formerly attended the State Agricultural college and has since been teaching in the Manhattan schools. Mr. Calvert was graduated from K. S. A. C. in 1914, and since then has been assistant in horticulture and manager of the college green house. Recently he bought the Hatridge green house of Independence, and he and his bride will make their home in that town.

Both the young people have friends among the Agricultural college people of this city.

Mrs. Juliet Shouse of Washington, D. C., is visiting friends in Kansas, and will spend some time at her home in Kinsey. She is now in Hutchinson, and Mrs. F. Dumont Smith is entertaining at a tea for her this afternoon.

Mrs. Vernon H. Branch of Wichita, and her daughter, Miss Hazel Branch, have gone to Indianapolis, Ind. From Emilie Seery of Topeka, who is visiting her, and for her cousin, Mr. Herman Ewers at Independence, who spent a few days with the Ewers family in Winfield.

The Woman's Rot club will have a picnic party Wednesday evening at Edgewood park.

Miss Alma Gerwe of Topeka, and Mr. Paul C. Buck of Denver, Colo., were married in Denver, July 6. Mrs. Buck has been instructor of nursing in St. Francis hospital for a number of years. Mr. Buck is a traveling man with headquarters in Denver.

Here are some war proverbs that will appeal to the women who are trying to do their share in these troubled times:

Cherish thy parings.
Waste not, want not.
The high cost of living is the whine of life.

A word to the wives is: "Efficient." If the shoe fits keep on wearing it. Better no garbage can than a full one.

It's a wise father that grows his own crop.
Eat to live, there is no virtue in living to eat.

When prosperity flies in at the window, garbage slips out at the door.

A rounded purse cannot live in harmony with a full garbage pail.

News has been received of the appointment of Edward Theodore Kline, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kline of Buchanan street, to the United States naval academy at Annapolis. The lad is but 17 years of age, and has passed creditably the examination for entrance to the academy. He was appointed as alternate by Congressman Doolittle of Pottawatomie, but as the principal appointee was not in position to accept, Mr. Kline becomes the congressman's nominee for the place.

Mr. Kline took two and one-half years of high school work and would have graduated at the end of the third year, had he not decided to try for the appointment to the academy. He is now a member of the Buchanan high school, and he gave himself to his preparation, and made the grades without a hitch, which is something of a record, considering that few young men attempt the examinations without a complete high school course, and often have to make a special preparation.

He will leave Thursday for the east, stopping Springfield, Ill., to visit his grandparents, and returning at Annapolis Monday, July 23.

Speaking of war babies, one of our charming young mothers has been teaching the necessity of saving to her small children. Today she dressed up her little girl in a "warrior" costume, called the attention of the baby's brother to the angel child. Said she, "I used to dress you up in white like that, and you look so nice."

Presently the small boy burst into tears. His mother inquired the cause of his distress. "I am trying so hard to save," he wailed, "and I can't save my clothes. I wore my bathing suit all this morning to save my other clothes, and you never even looked at it."

And heaven knows it's no use practicing war economies if nobody takes any notice of it.

Topeka is today losing one of its well known business women, Miss Edith Mathewson, decorator and floral designer, who has accepted an offer to take charge of the curio shop at the Inside Inn in the Garden of the Gods, and to have charge of the decorations at the Mansions, one of the important hotels of Manitou, Colo. She left today at noon, and will make her permanent home in Manitou and Colorado Springs.

Miss Mathewson who has been in Topeka for some fourteen years, is regarded as a decorator of unexcelled ability. The decorative work for many of the most fashionable affairs in the city has been the product of her brain and hand and unfailing good taste. Those who have met her in the course of her business life have liked her personally as well as professionally. Her new office will give her a wide scope for her special talents, and those to whose aesthetic taste she will minister will be travelers from all over the country. She has been a frequent visitor to conventions and other business occasions.

The Inside Inn is an enterprise which is being successfully conducted by Mrs. Jordan, a well-to-do woman of Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. McGrath announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Jane, to Mr. C. O. Malm, of San Antonio, Texas, July 4, in Kansas City. Mr. and Mrs. Malm have gone to live today at the Center of the West, where they have a lake-side cottage and other western points. They will make their home in Kansas City.

Notes and Reminiscences.
Dr. and Mrs. Charles M. Sheldon and their son, Mr. Merriam Sheldon, expect to leave in about two weeks for a motor trip to Frankfort, Mich., where they have a lake-side cottage. They will remain there a few weeks.
